Alumni Spotlight

Ryan Huebsch is an alumnus of Western Technical College and our department here at UWL! His education at UWL sparked his passion for public service, which he's pursued as a legislative aide and campaign manager. With deep ties to the UW-L community and valuable experience in state government, Ryan is committed to advocating for the Coulee Region. Now running for the 94th State Assembly District, he is eager to bring fresh ideas and energy to Madison on behalf of his community.

Steve Doyle

Steve Doyle graduated with a double major in Political Science and Public Administration from UWL. His time at UW-L not only shaped his understanding of public service but also inspired him to give back as an educator, teaching future leaders in the same department. His education, along with his strong ties to the La Crosse community, has helped him build a successful career in law and as the State Assembly representative for the 94th District.
