Item 1. State the name of the corporation (before any change effected by this amendment).

Item 2. Specify the amendment(s) to the corporation's articles of incorporation by identifying each article that is being amended, and how the amended item is to read.

Item 3. Specify the date the amendments were adopted and select one of the three available methods of adoption under applicable law. Select the first method if the amendments were adopted by the corporation's board of directors without the approval of members with voting rights, in accordance with section 181.1002 of the Wisconsin Statutes. Also select this method if (1) the corporation has not yet chosen directors, (2) it has no members with voting rights, and (3) the amendments were adopted by the corporation's incorporators (as identified in its articles of incorporation). Select the second method if the amendments were approved by a vote of the corporation's members in accordance with section 181.1003 of the Wisconsin Statutes. Select the third method if the amendments affect particular classes of members and were approved by votes of the affected class(es) in accordance with section 181.1004 of the Wisconsin Statutes.

Item 4. Under section 181.1030 of the Wisconsin Statutes, a corporation may choose in its articles of incorporation to require that any amendments to the articles must be approved in writing by a specified person other than the board of directors. If a corporation has opted to include such a requirement in its articles, then it must confirm that it has obtained the additional approval required by marking the checkbox. If the corporation has not adopted additional approval requirements in its articles of incorporation, leave this item blank.

Item 5. This document must be executed by a person authorized to sign on behalf of the corporation.

Drafter name. If the document is executed in Wisconsin, section 182.01(3) of the Wisconsin Statutes requires that it include the name of the drafter. If the document is not executed in Wisconsin, so indicate in the space provided for the drafter's name.

Optional delayed effective date/time. This document may declare a delayed effective date and time. The effective date/time may not be before, or more than 90 days after, the document is received by the Department of Financial Institutions for filing. If no effective date/time is specified, the document will take effect at the close of business on the date it is received for filing by the Department.
